(Note: CARW does not endorse these candidates. This is FYI only.)

If you are registered to vote in one of the following cities, VOTE! Each and every vote is important.

Veterans Day is a U.S. legal holiday dedicated to American veterans of all wars. Veterans Day 2023 will occur on Saturday, November 11 (observed Friday Nov. 10).

In 1918, on the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month, an armistice, or temporary cessation of hostilities, was declared between the Allied nations and Germany in World War I, then known as "the Great War." The following year, many countries commemorated Armistice Day on November 11th. In 1938, it became a federal holiday in the United States. Later, in the aftermath of World War II and the Korean War, Armistice Day became known as Veterans Day.

Dues for 2024 $50 cash/check or $51.50 card

CARW is accepting dues payments for 2024 TODAY or in January 2024.

You can bring a check to a meeting.

You can pay online at <https://chathamaw.org>

You can mail a check for $50 to Carol St. Arnaud, 4011 Amsterdam Circle, Sav. GA 31405.

Chatham Education Alliance

November 12 – 19, 2023, is Literacy Week in Savannah/Chatham County. The week is sponsored by the Chatham Education Alliance and supported by the City of Savannah, Chatham County, and the Savannah Chatham County Board of Education. There are also over 20 civic, community, and business organizations who are co-sponsors. They aim to build broad and deep public support for excellence in our schools.

Literacy Week will have two main events.

On Monday, November 13, Right to Read, a documentary produced by the NAACP, will be shown at the Lucas Theater. Kareem Weaver, the main protagonist in the film, will do a Q&A after the screening.

On Tuesday, November 14, Mr. Weaver will be the speaker at a luncheon at Kehoe Iron Works, sponsored by the Southeast Georgia Leadership Conference.

You are invited to attend one or both of these events.

Get tickets by scanning the QR codes on the flyers at each table.
