A Note from our President

Susan Speros

Pressure is a privilege. The responsibility to lead the CARW is a privilege. I will continue to keep the club up to date on upcoming events and I challenge you to do your part, talk about our club, and push the American First Agenda. I encourage you to ask what you can do for our club. Reach out to me, let's grow!

March Speaker: Brian Foster

Brian Foster graduated from the University of Georgia's business school and embarked on a 32-year career with C&S Bank / Bank of America. In 2001, Foster founded First Chatham Bank and served as CEO and President until his retirement in 2014. Following his banking career, he was elected to an at-large position on the City of Savannah City Council, where he served for four years. A few of the organizations Foster has chaired are the Savannah Chamber, Savannah Technical College Foundation, and Armstrong State University Foundation.

Announcements & Local News

MONTHLY LUNCHEON MEETINGS

Starting February 2025, there will be a different price for member and non-member lunches.

- Members: $35 cash/check, $36.50 card
- Non-Members: $40 cash/check, $41.50 card

The price pays for a lovely venue, delicious food, the servers, and decorations. The $5 difference in price is an incentive to join and receive a monthly newsletter. You can now reserve and pay online.
