A Note from Our President

The flowers are blooming, and the candidates for political offices are blooming as well. The primary is right around the corner and to prepare for it, CARW is proud to share that we have a great event planned for our April 1st, 2026 luncheon.

Congratulations to our Vice President, Marie Beebe, for securing the following candidates for the next Senate race in Georgia. We will welcome Congressman Buddy Carter, Reverend Dr. Christina Clement, Congressman Mike Collins, and Brigadier General Jonathan McColumn.

Come prepared with your questions, bring a friend, and enjoy an afternoon with some Senate candidates.

OUR APRIL SPEAKERS: US Senate Candidates

Congressman
Buddy Carter

Reverend Dr.
Christina Clement

Congressman
Mike Collins

Brigadier General
Jonathan McCollum

Congressman Buddy Carter is a lifelong resident of Georgia’s First District and a dedicated public servant, now serving his sixth term in the US House of Representatives.

Carter has over thirty years of experience as a pharmacist and small business owner. A former Mayor and state legislator, he has dedicated his career to fostering economic growth, reducing regulatory burdens, and championing a more accessible healthcare system.

Reverend Dr. Christina Clement is a renowned community leader, spiritual advisor, and author dedicated to advocating for social justice, education, and cultural heritage.

Her work spans across various fields, including faith-based initiatives, political activism, and community development. She is the driving force behind the State of the Loc Nation, a sovereign entity committed to self-governance and the preservation of cultural identity.

Congressman Mike Collins is a small business owner. He began his career working in his father’s shop before founding his own trucking company at age 25, and employs over 100 drivers.

In the House of Representatives, he serves as Chairman of the Transportation and Infrastructure Subcommittee on Water Resources and Environment, as well as on the Natural Resources and Science committees. He focuses on public safety and government efficiency.

Brigadier General Jonathan J. McCollum is a native of Warner Robins, GA, whose distinguished military career spans nearly 3 decades of service. General McCollum has held vital leadership roles as a logistician and member of the Army Acquisition Corps.

He is also an accomplished scholar with advanced degrees in Education, Strategic Studies, and Business Administration, as well as an ordained minister who provides spiritual leadership.

Georgia House & Senate PAGE Program: Now Through April 2nd

The Senate Page Program offers students age 12-18 a first-hand opportunity to visit the Capitol to observe and participate in the legislative process. Senate and House pages serve the Senators and Representatives by delivering important information and messages to them in the Senate Chamber during the legislative session day. Students can apply to serve as a page either through their Senator and Representative's office by going to www.legis.ga.gov/house/page-program and www.legis.ga.gov/news/senate/senate-page-program.
