A Note from Our President

Susan Speros

A big thank you to all who made our Game Day a huge success. It was a great LUNCH; LAUGHTER was shared by all, and there were WINNERS all around! The live auction was wonderful with a bidding competition to win a State of Georgia Resolution to honor and make someone's legacy a part of Georgia history!

This was finally won by Sherry Davis from Davis Produce to honor her late husband, Randy Davis. Sherry also joined the CARW, bringing our total member count to 88.

I am looking forward to another great turnout for our October luncheon. We will be featuring candidates running for election in November. Bring a friend, encourage new membership, and enjoy lunch with friends.

OCTOBER 7TH LUNCH SPEAKERS

GOP Candidates on the November 3rd Ballot

Bárbara Rivera Holmes

Georgia Labor Commissioner, Candidate for Reelection

Bárbara Rivera Holmes is Georgia's Labor Commissioner, who brings a unique background in journalism, economic development, and workforce advocacy. Originally from San Juan, Puerto Rico, she previously led the Albany Area Chamber of Commerce and served on the Georgia Board of Regents before being appointed to her current role in 2025.

Jim Kingston

Candidate for Georgia's 1st Congressional District Representative

Jim Kingston is a conservative leader who supports limited government, individual freedom, and reducing federal regulations that impact families and small businesses. He is running to bring a new generation of conservative leadership to Washington while promoting the values of faith, family, and freedom.

Richard Woods

Georgia Superintendent of Schools, Candidate for Reelection

Richard Woods is Georgia's State School Superintendent, first elected in 2014 and re-elected in 2018 and 2022. He has more than 30 years of experience in public education, serving as a teacher, administrator, and education leader in Georgia's K-12 school system. Woods has also worked in the private sector and has lived in South Georgia for many years.

The Republican Party was founded in a tiny little schoolhouse in Ripon, Wisconsin in 1854. The purpose? To stop the Democrats from expanding slavery across America. Every American should remember that.

NEW BOARD & LEADERSHIP

We will put the new recommendations for the incoming CARW board and officers in the November newsletter and vote in December.

AD BY MARCIA SMITH America First Club Member

"I highly recommend everyone read or listen to 'The Vision of the Anointed: Self-Congratulation as a Basis for Social Policy' by Thomas Sowell.

It was first published in 1995 and is as true today as it was then. Sowell is a brilliant economist, and you will find his writings educational, insightful and interesting."
